Football

Pitstone Pavilion is the home of Pitstone & Ivinghoe Junior Football Club and Pitstone & Ivinghoe United Football Club.

We have both junior and senior pitches, as well as a separate training area.

Access to the pitches is via either a gate or turnstile with a ticket office, should you be charging for your event.

Pitstone Pavilion

Community Room

A very bright and airy room, measuring approximately 11x7 meters is suitable for meetings, lunches, fitness classes, small receptions etc.

Kitchen

The redevelopment of the new Pitstone Pavilion facility is now complete.

The site is owned and managed by Pitstone Parish council.

We now have a community room, kitchen, changing village, senior and junior football pitches and training area available for hire.

There is also a new Parish Council office to enable a wider range of services to be delivered to the community, located in the main building.

Illuminated parking is available for 42 cars and 8 bicycles, the site is protected by CCTV, and intruder alarms.

The fully fitted kitchen just off the community room, with a serving hatch to the outdoor grounds, is ideal for preparing food or refreshments for your event or for guests outside.

There are plenty of chairs and tables available, along with a networked TV and WiFi throughout.

Use of the kitchen is included when booking the community room, we have a premises license which allows the sale of alcohol by hirers of the Pavilion, for example to provide after match refreshments or to cater for events.
