

October 2023

A seasonal celebration of environment, food, culture and Tring.

Sat 14th Oct What a load of old Costards! Tring Farmers' Market

9am-1pm · Old Market Place, Brook Street · Free

Come along to this special Apple Fayre edition of Tring Farmers' Market, support your local producers and eat well. Apples and other fruity themed produce will be available and the themed activities include:

- Local school 'scarecrow' judging
- Morris dancing displays
- Apple pressing - bring your own apples and a bottle for juicing
- Guess the cabbage weight!

Sat 14th Oct Trings Own Apple Cart Procession

10.30am-11am · Along Tring High Street to Tring Market Place, Brook Street · Free

Line the streets and follow the parade led by Tring's Own Apple Man (who is it this year?) from The Kings Arms pub to the Old Market Place. There will be dancing, a parade of school scarecrows, the Apple Cart, maypole and, of course, Morris dancers. We also hope to meet up with Whitchurch Morris and friends to dance in Church Square around 12 Morris Time...

Sat 14th Oct 'Crabs' Music Session

8pm-11pm · Robin Hood (TBC) · Free

*'Hard cider as much as you please,
Loose your teeth and bow your knees
Sour your gut and make you wheeze,
Turn your words to stings of bees
Thin your blood and kill your fleas,
Hard cider as much as you please.'*

Local Folk Hero &
a Gargoyle
6am
Mayday 2023
Aldbury

Which one is which?

Music session led by the Market Mynstralls, a scratch band of errant musicians local minstrels keeping themselves and everybody else awake. Eat, drink and be fumigated, what a great way to end the evening!